Terms and Conditions for Young Athlete Development Program (6-Week Program)

1. Program Overview

The Young Athlete Development Program (the "Program") is designed for school-aged athletes (12–15 years old) of all skill levels and sporting backgrounds. The Program focuses on key areas of personal and athletic development, providing valuable insights to support growth across all sports. The Program will be held at UniActive Wollongong Campus from May 21 to June 26, 2025, with training sessions on Wednesdays for boys and Thursdays for girls.

2. Program Fees

The cost of participation in the Program is $175 per athlete, which includes all sessions and training content. Payment is required in full upon registration.

3. No Refund Policy

By registering for the Program, participants and their guardians acknowledge that the $175 fee is non-refundable. No refunds will be provided for any reason, including but not limited to participant withdrawal, illness, injury, or other unforeseen circumstances.

4. Registration and Payment

To secure a spot in the Program, full payment must be made at the time of registration. Registrations will not be confirmed until payment is received. All payments are processed through the designated payment platform and are final upon submission.

5. Program Attendance

Participants are expected to attend all scheduled sessions. The Program includes weekly Strength & Conditioning sessions and Holistic Health & Resilience Training sessions, as outlined in the Program schedule.

6. Liability Waiver

By registering for the Program, the participant and their guardian acknowledge and accept the inherent risks of physical activity and sport. They agree to release and hold harmless the Program organisers, coaches, and affiliated entities from any liability for injury, loss, or damage sustained during participation.

7. Health and Safety

Participants must be in good health and capable of participating in physical activities. It is the responsibility of the participant's guardian to ensure the athlete is medically cleared to participate in the Program. Any medical conditions or concerns must be disclosed upon registration.

8. Code of Conduct

Participants are expected to adhere to the Program's code of conduct, which includes respecting coaches, fellow athletes, and the facilities. Failure to comply may result in removal from the Program without a refund.

9. Changes to the Program

The Program organisers reserve the right to modify, reschedule, or cancel any sessions due to unforeseen circumstances such as weather, emergencies, or other factors outside of their control. In the event of a cancellation, an alternative session may be offered, but no refunds will be provided.

10. Photography and Media

Participants may be photographed or filmed during Program sessions for promotional and marketing purposes. By registering for the Program, the participant and their guardian consent to the use of these images or videos in future marketing materials, unless explicitly stated otherwise in writing.

11. Personal Property

The Program organisers are not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged personal property during the Program. Participants are advised to keep their belongings always secured.

12. Consent

By registering for the Program, participants and their guardians agree to abide by the terms and conditions outlined in this document.

13. Contact Information

For any questions or concerns regarding the Program, please contact the Program organisers at jpendrigh@uow.edu.au
